PRINCE CUPID AS A REPUBLICAN WILL BE THE PARTY NOMINEE FOR DELEGATE TO CONGRESS

Convention Frames Declaration of Principles and Names Committeemen.

RINCE CUPID KALANIANAOLE will be the Republican nomince for Delegate to Congress. This was decided last night at a caucus of the delegates to the Republican convention, which, receiving the announcement that Prince Cupid had come out squarely as a Republican with cheers which reached the street, without hesitation, waiting only for the speeches of the friends of the Prince, decided by a vote practically unanimous that he should have the nomination.

ertson of the Republican Central Committee on the platform to call for order was the signal for a reception. Mr. Robertson after the reading of the convention call had it translated for the Hawaiian members.

Mr. Robertson then, on behalf of the the gentlemen assembled for their support since the beginning of the organization and expressed a trust that they would turn the organization over to their successors in at least as good a shape as they had received it. The large attendance proved that the Remuch business to be done he would now call for the election of a temporary

CABLE COMING DEC. 1ST

Approximate Date Has Been Fixed.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 22.-Mr. S. S. Dickenson, representative of the Pacific Cable Co., is staying at the Palace hotel. He is booked to return to Honolulu on the Korea, leaving here the 30th. He will probably soon go on to Guam to arrange for the cable landing there upon the same lines that he has been doing at Honolulu. The ca-ble has been finished and during the nex few days the loading of it aboard the steamer will be completed. There have been some unexpected delays, however, and the probability is that the steamer will not get away from England until the first or second week in September, and the completion of the laying of the cable will accordingly be likewise postponed until approximatey December 1. The terms proposed to the cable company by President Roosevelt upon which he will allow them the free use of the soundings between Honolulu and the Philippines, have not yet been accepted by the cable com-pany, and it is not likely that they will be unless modified. The principal ground of objection is that the propos-ition requires the cable company to allow the government to take possession of the cable and operate it free of charge during war time. The cable company do not object to the government taking respection during war. ment taking possession during war time, as the government has the right to take possession of any property under such circumstances, necessary for carrying on the war; but they do not see the justice of requiring them to surrender their property for an indefinite period without compensation It would be cheaper for the company to make their own soundings. Another minor point is the requirement that the operators shall all be make American citizens. It is a fact that in hour. the United States the Morse system is used exclusively, whereas all foreign telegraph and cable companies, as well as all of the American cable companies across the Atlantic, use the International system of signals, which is en-tirely different. Very few Americans have learned the International system. and in case an American operator of the cable on the Asiatic side should be disabled or unobtainable a foreign operator could readily be picked up, while the restriction to American citizens would endanger the whole operation of the cable. The company are still in hopes that a modification of the requirements by the government will be quirements by the government will be made. If not, there will probably be an additional delay in laying the cable beyond Honolulu, but this will not affect the laying of the San Francisco-

Residents of Honolulu, like other American citizens, in making an investment want to be sure of getting the worth of their money. They want to know all the whys and wherefores, and in a direct ratio to the value of the investment they burrow and ferret until satisfied with the collateral. Take an instance in the realm of proprietary articles. If we know of a friend who has been cured we have some faith in the preparation; if we know of two or three our faith increases. If the cures reach scores all well known citizens, anyone who still maintains that there is nothing beyond ordinary merit in the said preparation, can safely be left to the care of his fellow tax-payers. If he wishes to pick a quarrel with them on the question of their judgment and veracity, he has ample opportunity in Honolulu to do so. Begin with this

Dr Chas. H. Utter, a prominent physician of Panama, Colombia, in a recent letter states "Last March I had as a patient a young lady sixteen years of age, who had a very bad attack of dysentery. Everything I prescribed for her proved ineffectual and she was growing worse every hour. Her parents were sure she would die. She had become so weak that she could not turn over in bed. What to do at this critical moment was a study for me, but I thought of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and as a last resort prescribed it. The most wonderful result was effected. Within eight hours she was feeling much better; inside of three days she was upon her feet and at the end of one week was entirely well." For sale by all

MONITOR FOR HARBOR WORK

The United States Navy Department s preparing a new scheme for defense of the smaller American ports and islands which have no shore batteries. Hawall will probably be included in this scheme, as there are no shore batteries here which can be used to defend the islands from the possible attacks of a foreign fleet, and it is not always possible to have a gunboat or cruiser in these waters. For island defense small monitors have been planned, and one of these for use on the Atlantic coast has already been launched. This is the a harbor defense monitor. She is an interesting vessel

Aching Joints

In the fingers, toes, arms, and other parts of the body, are joints that are inflamed and swollen by rheumatism --- that acid condition of the blood which affects the muscles also.

Sufferers dread to move, especially after sitting or lying long, and their condition is commonly worse in wet weather.

"It has been a long time since we have been without Hood's Sarsaparl'la. My father thinks he could not be without it He has been troubled with rheumatism since he was a boy, and Hood's Sarsaparivis is the only medicine he can take that will enable him to take his place in the field" Miss And Dory Sidney, Iowa.

TRIES TO KILL HIS EMPLOYERS

Japanese Cook in Rage Uses a Knife.

(From Monday's Daily.)

Insane with rage, springing from an unknown cause, Mori, the Japanese cook for E. E. Hartman, yesterday morning made an effort to murder both the master and mistress of the house. Mrs. Hartman is now suffering from scalds ext. iding from her head to her waist and Mr. Hartman has seven cuts about the head and arms, one gash in the throat coming close to the jugular vein. The Japanese is now lying in the hospital with a wound in the left shoulder, where the bullet of Hartman pierced his body.

The attack upon Mr. and Mrs. Hartman comes from a desire for revenge for some fancled wrong, which both of the injured ones are unable to understand. The man has been the cook for the young couple since their marriage and the setting up of their household goods in the School street residence where the attempt to kill them took place. He has been well liked by the family, which includes beside the young people a mutual friend, Fred West. Yesterday morning the cook was out of humor. During breakfast he seemed to be annoyed and was chided gently by the master of the house for making noises which seemed unnecessary. There was no break in the harmony which might be construed as indicative of the final outcome however. Mr. West left the house for downtown shortly after nine o'clock, Mr. Hartman has been very ill for the past ten days and was just getting about again. He determined to sprinkle the

The Eruption a Splendid Sight.

LAVA FLOW

KILAUEA'S

HILO, August 29.—The Tribune says: The volcano at Kilsuea is in the most violent state of eruption that has occurred since 1892.

An earthquake shook Hilo last Monday night and within a few minutes thereafter a telephone message from Manager Waldron at the Volcano House, thirty miles away, stated that the pit of Halemaumau was reflecting a light plainly visible on the clouds. The message also stated that Mr. Waldron would go at once to the crater's edge three miles away and see what had happened.

Tuesday morning Mr. Waldron was able to report that he had looked into the pit and seen a boiling, tempest tossed lake of molten lava, 400 feet in diameter and probably 800 to 1000 feet below the rim of the great cauldron.

The face of the lake of liquid fire would alternately be black and white like the gushing fluid that leaps from the furnaces of a steel plant. The oxidization and cooling of the fiery fluid would blacken the surface with a pall that would clothe the vast inverted cathedral in darkest gloom. A quiver, caused by further subterranean upheavals would break this oxide ice into a fretwork of a thousand incandescent cracks, lighting up the smoke-charged pit with a flerce glare.

Here and there over the surface of the lake, columns of white hot lava would shoot upwards like the harmless fountains in the public gardens. #### Things Beginning to Warm Up.

MAUI, August 30 .- Things political are getting decidedly "warm" on Maui and there promises to be an exciting time at the nominating convention to be held at Walluku court house, September 8th. The Home Rule party may be lacking in available men for leaders on the coming campaign but the Republican party does not suffer in that respect. Hana district, instead of indersing one candidate for representative, has divided up its delegates among three-six delegates for J. K. Iosepa, five for W. P. Haia, and two for E. M. Hanuna.

At Wailuku, Thursday evening, the 28th, over a hundred Republicans filled the court house, for there was much interest in the precinct meeting. After a lively session, during which there was much throwing of rhetorical "bouquets," S. Keliinoi was indorsed for first choice with six delegates and Alfred Hayselden as second choice with four delegates. S. Keliinoi is now assistant secretary at the Republican headquarters in Wailuku and Alfred Hayselden was formerly deputy sheriff of Wailuku.

There were three candidates before the meeting, but the friends of J. K. Kahookele, the surveyor, withdrew his name in favor of Keliinoi.

At Hamakuapoko, the same evening there was an exciting Republican preeinct meeting in spite of the rain. The attendance, however, was less than a hundred when two or three hundred were expected. The result of the indorsement of candidates resulted in a tie-S. E. Kalama receiving forty-three votes and Rev. John Kalino 43,-so the delegates will be divided between them.

Lahaina will hold its precinct meeting tonight. On Molokai the Kalaupapa precinct has forwarded to the Wailuku Republican headquarters proxies for six delegates, all in favor of Joel Nakaleta. The remaining part of Molokai, the Pukoo precinct, has not been heard from as yet.

DEATH OF PONI AWANA.

Thursday, the 28th, Poni Awana, the little twelve year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. Awana of Makawao, died from the effects of typhoid fever, having suffered much for six months' past. The funeral took place during the afternoon of the 29th at Pookela church, Rev. Mr. Kuikahi performing the ceremony, and her four sisters and other girl friends singing most sweetly the solemn hymns. Poni Awana possessed a most amiable disposition and was dearly loved by all who knew her. She was the brightest and best pupil in her school and the favorite daughter and sister in her home. Her early demise is much regretted by her relatives, friends, teachers and school-

HD absence of money in the market continues to be the feature, and the small list of sales of stocks, coming after a week when nothing was done, will have little effect upon the general situation. The stillness seems due primarily to the fact that there is no cash. Bank deposits have fallen off and the consequence is that there are very few loans being made. The rates are the same, but the outgoing coin must continue to be small in volume until there is a commensurate amount of payments. Rates have not stiffened, but on the contrary there is no attempt to make any harder bargains with those who must have accommodation.

The feature of the week's trading has been the sale of a block of 66 shares of Waimanalo. This stock, closely held, has fluctuated very little during the past few years. While there was a booming of other stocks this plantation held its own, but did not take any decided brace, and the result has been that it has maintained its usual galt, paying its dividend with regularity and keeping along in the best kind of shape. The stock sold to insiders at $160 a share, which is the usual rate, though there has been a bid of $170 for more of the stock, which was not found. Mr. Irwin has given to the plantation his personal attention in a great measure, and the result must be largely attributed to his skill and guidance.

Apart from this favorable feature of the market, the remainder of the stocks have shown a little decline, due to lack of buyers. The most unusual feature of the whole thing is that Ewa has scored the most remarkable decline, having been sold at $20. Only 20 shares have been transferred at this figure, but there is more in the market, and buyers are holding off this stock just as they are from the others of the list. It is the opinion of certain brokers that the decline in Ewa is the cause of the feeling that has forced down the prices of other shares. There seems to be a desire to walt on the part of all, and the result is that the general list has declined. Thus there have been sales of Oahu at $65, not on the board, and probably never to be reported, and there is in the market now some Waialua which can be had for $40, though there are no buyers for the stock even at that figure. The reason for this low quotation is that the holder of a block of 400 shares of the stock has decided that he will get rid of it here, and he will force the sale at has decided that he will get rid of it here, and he will force the sale at whatever price he may obtain.

Olaa was the most active stock, in that the number of shares transferred vas the largest. Six hundred and thirty-one shares were sold of the assessable, and 25 of paid up. The price was the ruling one of $4 for the former and $8 for the latter. There is little of the stock in the market which has able, and 25 of paid up. There is little of the stock in the market which has at assessment paid, but there is considerable which is delinquent, the last assessment paid, but there is considerable which is delinquent. There will be an auction sale of the shares which are far back in the payments, held next week, when it is expected that the rates established by the ments, held next week, when it is expected that the rates established by the cexchange transactions of this week will be the ones to rule.

Daring of Skilled Divers of the Deep.

The New York Sun says: The shark low, as he has always done, occupies an unique position in the Hawalian Isiands. There are numerous instances in which he was treated as a god, and it was supposed that if a mother were to feed her infant to one, the child's soul would enter the animal's body and the latter would ever after prove a friend to the family. As the Hawaiian rarely cared in the olden times to be bothered with raising their children, this was a convenient and comforting

Although the waters surrounding the islands are infested with sharks, it is rarely that a native fisherman exhibits any fear of them, and the fishermen think nothing of running the most desperate chances in attacking. While the native would not consider for a moment the capture of his own especial god, he has no compunctions about taking some other man's,

The natives divide the sharks frequenting Hawaiian waters into five species, as follows: The Mano-kanaka (man shark), is the shark god of the ancient Hawaiians, the Mano, a large white shark, and the Niuhi, the largest and fiercest of all. The last two are rarely seen in Hawaiian waters. The Niuhi is said to be seen a long way off at night by the bright greenish light of its eyeballs. It only is much feared by the natives.

The hammer-headed and white-fin sharks are captured in gill nets, seines or bag nets with other fishes. The larger species are taken usually with hook and line, as no net would be strong enough to hold them. Shark hooks are generally made of a piece of hardwood arved to the proper shape, with a piece of sharp pointed bone lashed to the end to form the tip. Few of the hooks have

But frequently the fishermen take sharks with spears. Diving to a favor-able spot in about five or six fathoms of water, the fisherman places himself in a half-crouching posture against a large coral rock and waits for the shark to appear. When one comes he darts the spear into a vital spot, if possible. Should he fail to kill the fish with the pear he watches his opportunity and completes the operation with his knife, tearlessly engaging at close quarters. hould the shark appear while he is descending or ascending a battle royal is on at once, with the chances largely in favor of the shark, as the diver is unable to use his spear and must trust to his knife at close quarters. As the native is apparently as much at home below the surface as above it his wonderful skill sometimes saves him.

Frequently the natives seeks the shark in coves and caves below the surface, after the fish has gorged itself and sleeps with its head forced into the of its resting place. The diver gently slips a noose about the tail and the shark is then hauled up and de patched. The slightest false movement of the diver would startle and he would probably regret having attacked. Yet experts have been known to capture six or eight sharks in a day in this man-

The floet would salt many piles out. The ficet would sail many miles out to sea in the direction from which the Niuh was known to appear, and, arriving at a comparatively shallow place, anchor. Then the baked liver and meat would be thrown overboard, a few bundles at a time, to attract the sharks. After a few days the grease and scent of the cooked meat would spread through the water for many miles in every direction. About the third or fourth day the Niuhl would appear Then bundles of the baked meat would be thrown out as fast as it could swallow them. After a while the shark would get comparatively tame, and would come up to one or the other of the canoes to be fed. Bundles of the liver with the pounded awa would then be given to it, and it would soon become not only satisfied, but also stupefied from the effects of the awa. That would be the end. A noose being slipped over the shark's head, the fleet would up anchor and set sail for home, the shark following a willing prisoner, being fed with more of the meat and awa from time to time It would be led into shallow water and there stranded and killed. Every part of its bones and skin was supposed to confir unflinching bravery on the possessor, while the actual captor, he who
